

Literacy

- Explanation writing; the body, functions of organs and keeping healthy
- Grammar -contractions and conjunctions, causal connectives, present tense, modal verbs.
- Reading - Non-fiction texts on being healthy and the heart
- Comprehensions based on the topic
- Speaking and listening; poetry and figurative language reading, preparing poems to read aloud and perform; intonation, tone and volume.
- Guided reading - comprehension of a class text
- Spellings and handwriting

Maths

- Times numbers up to 4-digits by 1 and 2-digit numbers and divide numbers up to 4-digits by 1-digit numbers
- Multiply and divide mentally using known facts and solve \times and \div problems
- Finding equivalent fractions
- Converting mixed number to improper fractions
- Converting improper fractions to mixed numbers
- Adding fractions
- Using the CGP maths books to consolidate previous learning

P.E

- Health-related exercises
- Swimming

Art

Using watercolours, pencils and pastels to create pictures of 3D fruit.

Science

- Healthy food and why they are important for our bodies
- The heart, how it works, different organs and their functions.
- Dangers of smoking and drug use.

Healthy inside and out!

P.S.H.C.E

- Healthy choices
- Smoking and drug use
- SRE (See letter)

RE

- Investigate different religious views and beliefs
- Discuss social issues and how they depend on different moral and religious choices

ICT

-Look at the elements of a PowerPoint presentation and create your own based on being healthy.

Music

-Weekly recorders will continue throughout this half term.